WebEx Training Center
How To Join A Breakout Session

Once your instructor starts a breakout session, you should have the option to join an assigned group or to choose your own group. It depends on how your instructor set up the breakout session.

Step 1: Once your instructor starts the breakout session, a pop-up window will appear and ask you to join the breakout session. Please click Yes to join an assigned a breakout session.

![Image of how to join a breakout session]

Step 2: After you enter your assigned group session, you can communicate with your group members by using the available features to form a collaborative learning group with your peers. The following features may be available during the breakout session:

- Technology and Collaborative Learning
  - Share Desktop, Files, Web Content, Application
  - Use Annotation tools
  - Add pages on Whiteboard

- Communication and Collaborative Learning
  - Use Chat and Participants panel
  - Turn on video and use audio
  - Ask your instructor’s help or feedback by clicking the Ask For Help icon

- To end the session, you can click the End Breakout Session button. The host (instructor) also can end the breakout session and ask everyone return to the main screen.

![Image of breakout session features]